STARTING A NEW MOMCO MINISTRY?

Here's what's next:

The MomCo is dedicated to launching healthy ministries that will last for decades! In order to do that, we have a few “Next Steps” for new MomCo Meetups. We want this process to feel as smooth and organized as possible.

- IDENTIFY - The first step is to identify a leader that is committed to launching your MomCo Meetup well, and that is ready to schedule a leader planning meeting, new member interest meeting, or host the first official MomCo Meetup, within three months of signing up.
- TRAIN - The second step is to help that leader feel more prepared for what's next. MomCo offers world class video-based training for every leader and requires that at least one leader from your ministry be MomCo Leader Certified. It's super easy, and takes less than 40 minutes to complete!
- PLAN - The third step is to work with our Launch Specialist to complete and return a Launch Plan. This helps the leader walk through the new MomCo Meetup logistics, and helps MomCo know how best to support the new meetup going forward.

Our Launch Specialist will be working closely with this leader throughout the process. Having a committed leader, ensuring at least one leader is MomCo Leader Certified, and completing and returning a Launch Plan are all important steps to ensure the success and longevity of the ministry.
